Your new role

You will be an important member of our creative team and will assume responsibility for all administrative office requirements within our Winchester studio- assisting and supporting Directors and staff there. Activities include:

- Reception duties such as: answering calls, greeting visitors, dealing with any queries, organising refreshments for meetings, maintaining a tidy 'front of house', handling mail, couriers and special deliveries.
- Administrative duties such as: organising and purchasing office supplies from stationery to the milk delivery, managing cleanliness and the upkeep of the office- liaising with suppliers as needed, organising and managing external meetings / events and practice days and outings, booking travel, hotels and restaurants.
- Project team duties such as: diary management for the Directors and for practice wide events, data entry, providing occasional support to the project teams as well as general filing, photocopying and document binding. Also organising lunchtime CPD training seminars including liaising with external presenters, maintaining records and organising sandwich lunches.
- Facilities management duties such as: ensuring the upkeep of the office including identifying and liaising with contractors about planned maintenance or issues, record keeping, supplier reviews and maintenance of external communal areas.
- Quality assurance and Environmental duties such as: assisting with the implementation and management of ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 including preparing for the annual external audit in conjunction with Directors. Assisting in the undertaking of internal audits, maintaining records and ensuring training and communication take place about QA and Environmental targets.
- Health and Safety duties such as: arranging and minuting monthly meetings with Directors, actioning changes, booking all statutory H&S training for staff, keeping records and ensuring accreditations are up to date and undertaking risk assessments.
